

ALHA Newsletter 164, dated 30th September 2020

Late News

1. Aerospace Bristol. The museum is now open, Wednesday to Sunday, 10am to 4pm. Tickets must be purchased and paid for in advance and are available to book online now. Details at

<https://aerospacebristol.org/>

2. South Gloucestershire Black History Month talks. Jane Marley writes: 'On behalf of the Black and Minority Ethnic (BME) Staff Network, Daniel Wood, South Gloucestershire Council Corporate Equalities Officer, has arranged for Dr Edson Burton to deliver a couple of webinars in October (Black History Month). South Gloucestershire museum and heritage groups can join these talks. They are:

- 'We Dey Here Long time' - An overview of the Black presence in Britain from 1300-2020. Friday 2nd October – 12.30pm to 1.30pm AND Thursday 22nd October – 4.00pm to 5.00pm
- BLM Lessons from Black Activist History 1900 to the present day. Tuesday 13th October – 4.00pm to 5.00pm AND Friday 30th October 12.30pm to 1.30pm

A brief biography for Dr Burton is here: <http://www.onetribetalent.co.uk/talent/edson-burton/>

SGC's Learning & Development Team will need the following details from each Group/Organisation so that they can set them up on the system:

Organisation Name

Organisation Address

Organisation Telephone Number

A general Email address for the organisation (e.g. enquiries, admin etc.)

Once set-up, the Group/Organisation would be able to send the link to get to our Learning and Development Portal to their staff/members who can set up their own personal account and then click to book their place.

If this is something that you would like to do for your organisation and members, you can forward the above details our Workforce Development Team– email:

HRWorkforceDevelopment@southglos.gov.uk who will set your organisation up on the Learning and Development system.'