

Society for Landscape Studies and Cambrian Archaeological Society
Conference at Cardiff University Cathays Park Campus, Cardiff CF10 3EU.
John Percival Building.

Saturday 19th October 2019

Recent Work in Welsh Landscape History.

0910-0945 Registration. Light refreshments will be available.

0945 Welcome and administrative issues.

0950 Location, Location, Location: Neolithic monuments in the Walton Basin
Bill Britnell, Research Associate, Clwyd-Powys Archaeological Trust

1030 The impact of the Roman Army on the Landscape of Wales
Dr. Peter Guest, Reader in Roman Archaeology, University of Cardiff, and Leah Reynolds, University of Cardiff.

1120 Light Refreshments

1140 Strata Florida: the Sacred Landscapes Project
David Austin, Principal Investigator of the AHRC Sacred Landscapes Project

1220 The Severn Sea in the fifteenth-sixteenth centuries
Evan T. Jones, Senior Lecturer in Economic and Social History, University of Bristol

1300 Buffet Lunch and Society for Landscape Studies AGM

1400 Estate landscapes in Wales
Shaun Evans, Director of the Institute for the Study of Welsh Estates, Bangor
University
Philip Nanney Williams, Author of Nannau: A Rich Tapestry of Welsh History

1450 The Minera Project.
Speaker provided by Clwyd-Powys Archaeological Trust- to be agreed.

1530 Light Refreshments.

1550 Building a house on sand
Eurwyn William, Independent Scholar

1630 Further questions and discussion

1700 Conference ends

Course Fees. Standard fee £28. Members of the Society for Landscape Studies and Cambrian Archaeological Association fee £26. Both these include buffet lunch and all light refreshments. Special Student fee (no refreshments or food) fee £10.

Booking forms are available by emailing brianrich457@btinternet.com or phoning Brian Rich on 01538 384713