

The Bristol & Gloucestershire Archaeological Society
(www.bgas.org.uk)

I DO LIKE TO BE BESIDE THE SEASIDE

‘Out and About in Bristol 1914-1918: Excavating the forgotten history behind Bristol's war effort’

John Penny

This talk will investigate (amongst other things) the buildings involved in war-time manufacturing in the city and the crucial contribution which the civilian workforce (much of it female) made during the First World War.

Monday 26th November

Time: 7.45

Venue: Apostle Room, Clifton Cathedral, Pembroke Road, Clifton, BS8 3BX (ample free parking; nos 8 and 9 buses close by)

Cost £1, students free

ALL WELCOME